Fallowfield February 12th, 1965.

Dear Mario,

Serkin is playing tonight at the Festival Hall, and your 'Philosophy of Science' Leaflet kaa it arrived while we are getting ready to leave. I see Paul Bernays will be there, also, please remember us to him.

We found out now that the English edition of the Critical Approach has been out since xuxumm fall (sorry!), and it seems that at least some of the English contributors got their copies now. Somehow, also, somebody told us that there was a short review of it in the Times Literary Supplement of December 24th, 1964; we have not seen the English edition.

Dear Distinguished Visiting Professor, please let us know how your visa problems are . WE ARE WORKIED,

Karl will give the Compton Memorial Lecture at Washington (Missouri) University on April 21st. (المرابع عند المرابع عند المرابع المرا
