

A SOCIETY OF PUBLIC SERVANTS

The ideal society is that where everybody is a public servant, i.e. earns his livelihood serving others. The motto of such a society is the old (Scout?) slogan "Uno para todos y todos para uno".* The correct names for such a society would be republican (since it would pivot around the res publica) or socialist (as opposed to individualistic).

* Coined or adopted by Alexandre Dumas in Les trois mousquetaires.

Inv 81911
FT 080